BAY AREA TRANSPORTATION PARTNERSHIP HOSTS BIKE TO WORK DAY
FRIDAY, MAY 21, 2004

The Bay Area Transportation Partnership, a regional Transportation Management Organization addressing transportation mobility and air quality issues for the Greater Bay Area, will acknowledge National Bike Month by hosting a BIKE TO WORK DAY on Friday, May 21, 2004.

The BIKE TO WORK “bike ride” will have participation from area companies and municipalities. An organized group ride will begin at 7:30 a.m. at Bike Barn located at 2422 Bay Area Blvd. and finish at the City of Nassau Bay City Hall located at 1800 NASA Parkway (across from NASA). The ride will be approximately 3 miles in length.

Registration begins at 7:00 a.m., Bike Ride to Nassau Bay at 7:30 a.m., Program, Prizes and Refreshment at 8:00 a.m. at Nassau Bay and Ride To Work at 8:30 a.m.

United Space Alliance is hosting refreshments for this year’s event with prizes and event coordination being provided by Bike Barn and Space City Cycling Club.

Sponsors for this year’s event include the City of Nassau Bay, City of Webster, Bike Barn, Space City Cycling Club and United Space Alliance.

Connie Elston, President of Bay Area Transportation Partnership states, “By participating in the Bike to Work event, Commuters in the Greater Bay Area can help promote awareness of a healthy, non-polluting alternative mode of transportation that promotes exercise and reduces the amount of pollution emitted in the air during short trips and stop-and-go conditions.

For more information concerning Bike to Work Day contact Connie Elston at 281-333-1813 or Neil Bremner at Bike Barn 281-338-2563, ext. 13.
