Dear Lilibeth:

Thank you again for applying for the Bicycle Friendly Community designation. After careful review of your application and consultation with local cyclists, we have determined that Houston, TX should be recognized with an Honorable Mention.

The Honorable Mention is presented only to communities on the cusp of earning a Bicycle Friendly Community award. You should be proud of this accomplishment indicating that a few additional improvements could earn a Bicycle Friendly Community award for your community in the future. We will be sending you an analysis of the strengths and weaknesses we saw in your application soon.

The League will promote your honorable mention status on our website for one year. We will gladly review an updated application next year, so we urge you to make as many improvements as possible in the meantime!

Once again, congratulations on your progress in creating a bicycle-friendly community.

Sincerely,
