

Directions to the Waterworks Education Center
Northeast Water Purification Plant (NEWPP)
12550 Water Works Way, Humble, Texas 77396

General Information:

The entrance to the Northeast Water Purification Plant is accessible from Beltway 8 East (also known as Beltway 8 East or Sam Houston Toll Road) The nearest intersection is Lockwood Road & N. Sam Houston Parkway E.

Drivers must travel eastbound on Beltway 8 through the Lockwood intersection.

Approximately 50 feet east of the Lockwood & Beltway 8 intersection, exit Right at the green Exit sign to U-turn under the Beltway 8 overpass.

From I-59 North - FROM DOWNTOWN, GREENSPPOINT OR CLEVELAND:

From I-59, drive east 5 to 6 miles on Beltway 8 to the Lockwood Road traffic light.

Approximately 50 feet after crossing Lockwood -before the overpass - exit Right at the green Exit sign to make a U-turn under the freeway. If you miss the feeder road exit, make a u-turn at W. Lake Houston Parkway and return to the Lockwood intersection.*

After completing the U-turn underneath the Beltway, turn right and continue over the railroad track to the plant. (This road runs parallel to the large power line towers.) The guard at the gate will ask to see your driver's license.

From 1-10 E. or Hwy 90 E. -- FROM SHELDON OR SUMMERWOOD:

Travel north on Beltway 8 to Lockwood. The last traffic light before Lockwood is West Lake Houston Parkway (the Summerwood water walls are on the right). Stay on Beltway 8 and move into the left lane to prepare to make a U-turn at Lockwood. Either use the U-turn lane, or make a U-turn via the Lockwood traffic signals.

After completing the U-turn at Lockwood, there is a green Exit sign. Move into the far right lane and Exit to the right onto the east-bound feeder road. (Do not drive over the overpass.) The feeder road makes a U-turn under the Beltway. After completing the U-turn under the freeway, turn right. This road will cross the railroad track and continue to the plant entrance. (The road runs parallel to large power line towers.) The guard at the gate will ask to see your driver's license.
